Speaker profile

Bart Adams is responsible for the Fiscal Department for Foreign Investments. This department is a small team of experts in international taxation under the direct authority of the President of the Executive Committee of the Belgian Ministry of Finance. Their task is to promote attractive tax incentives for foreign investments and to provide assistance to foreign investor applicants in their relations with the various departments within then Ministry. In this context, the prime Minister and Minister of Finance of the Belgian government often call on their expertise on official assignments, both abroad and within the country. Mr. Adams is a Master in Law and a Bachelor of Economics from the Catholic University of Louvain.

Marc De Vestele is Trade and Investment Counsellor in the Belgian Embassy in Seoul. Mr. De Vestele studied economics and philosophy at the Catholic University of Louvain-la-Neuve. He worked and lived in Congo, Ireland, Belgium, Lebanon and Germany before coming to Korea.
